MINISTER'S UPDATE

From the Almighty by His beloved Son, grace and peace be multiplied to you. We thank you to our heavenly Father for providing and taking care of the ministry, sustaining it to continue doing the work of proclaiming the third angel's message. As our first newsletter, the Loud Cry Review is being released, we wanted to take a moment to update you on some things taking place in the ministry. Our website has been entirely overhauled with its articles, so that it makes it easier for those who do not know the truth to navigate through the articles. Also, it was necessary for us to begin a Prophetic NewsWatch section with the rapidly increasing intensity of the prophecies unfolding before us. In this, we have some help watchmen on the walls for the purpose of keeping up with events taking place. We have also been working daily for spreading the message in Portugal to the people, and having Bible studies with individuals, families, and groups regularly. Please keep these in prayer.

The new newsletter features a number of different articles, but also several studies to help keep our spiritual sword sharpened. We have the Wildurmuth family having put together a crossword Bible study. We also have a Guest Contributor, Walks With God Ministries, which we are pleased to feature in a column. Enoch Leffingwell, director of Walks With God Ministries has been in frequent communication with me, and we've been tremendously blessed to have him impart what counsels the Father has been sharing with him and his team.

We also have Loud Cry sharing tracts available, which bring the stirring prophetic messages in a compact form before the people. We offer sample sharing tracts to those in North America and Europe; the shores where prophecy is especially fulfilling. If you are interested, you may find them on the last page of this newsletter. More than this, we have a special announcement to make. Brother Shawn Hoffman of Seek Bible Truth Ministries and Loud Cry Ministries have been collaborating on a project which he will announce in the newsletter on page 6. Other ministries are also joined and will receive equal benefit in the project. Blessings to you and yours!

LOUD CRY OF THE THIRD ANGEL

BY CHRISTIAN ISRAEL

The Bible tells us that God created the heavens and the earth, and that in the beginning, He made everything “very good”. We’re told that His throne is “for ever and ever”; “Righteousness and judgment” are the place of His Throne. “The LORD has prepared His throne in the heavens, and His kingdom rules over all.” (Ps. 103:19) “The LORD reigns...He is set between the cherubim.” (Ps. 99:1) The Most Holy throne in heaven is the place where He reigns, and administers in the judgment of His laws, and it was “from everlasting” (Ps. 93:2).

Among the most exalted of his creatures were those who were set on the nethermost region of His throne, veiling their faces, and especially regarding His law. The word cherub means “mighty” and “brought near”; these mighty angels were brought especially near to the throne of the Holiest, and they were to serve as strong guardians of the way of the kingdom of God. When Moses was instructed to make a representation of the Throne of God, two cherubim were to be placed on the edge of His throne, beholding the foundation of His throne, the law contained in Ten Commandments. This was to signify that their duty was especially to regard His law, and to uphold the righteousness of it before the universe because those who both do and teach this law are called mighty in heaven (See Matt. 5:19). There is no safety so great as when looking steadfastly to God and His law, and making His way the law of life for the soul. In this sense, the cherubim were as angelic commanders over the host of heaven.

But the perfect celestial harmonies found a discordant note among them. Not by any fault of God or His Son, by whom He made the worlds

(See John 1, Heb. 1, Col. 1), but by an exalted cherub who cherished pride in his heart and the desire for self-exaltation caused him to make war against the law of God’s throne. “You were a sealing of the pattern, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You were in Eden, the garden of God... Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou were upon the holy mountain of God;...Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee...Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty, you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness.” (Ezekiel 28:14-17)

THE QUESTION OF WORSHIP

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.” (Isaiah 14:12-14)

It was from the exalted sphere of the anointed cherub that began to cause great convulsions in heaven. He aspired for himself to go higher than the high place appointed for him, and to be equal with God. It was his desire to be above angels and to receive worship. Yet the honor and right to homage and worship belongs in the Scriptures to God and not to creatures, even exalted angels were not given this right.

We are told in the first chapter of Hebrews that there is one equal with God, and that is His Son. In this chapter, he is compared side-by-side with angels, that it might be known that His Son is higher than the angelic host. We’re told that He is “made so much better than the angels, as He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.” (Heb. 1:4) What name did the Son receive more than the angels? The only-begotten Son of God (See verse 5). This birthright was divinely bestowed upon Christ, so that the Father gives His own title of God to His Son, who possesses by inheritance the same nature as the Most High God; “to the Son He saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.” (v.8) For this cause “when He bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, He saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.” (v.6)

THE EQUALITY FACTOR

So intimate is the relation sustained between the Son of God to God the Father, that we are told “that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent Him.” True worship of

“It was a system of equality that undermined the worship of the Son with the Father...”

God the Father finds expression in worshipping the Son of God. When Lucifer sought to exalt his creature to the place of equality with God, he was seeking to introduce a new kind of government where the creature is as the Creator is, and the Creator is as the creature. It was a system of equality that undermined the worship of the Son with the Father.

God the Father and Christ the Son rejected this created addition which which alter the government of heaven; which would of a necessity change the Authority of the Great Lawgiver. “Add not thou unto His word, lest He reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.” (Prov. 30:6) We’re told that “whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be added to it, nor any thing taken from it” (Ecc. 3:14) By this, Lucifer began to go to the angels under his command, where he was to guard and uphold the law, and led many to revolt against the government of heaven. “And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon...And his tail drew a third part of the stars of heaven and cast them into the earth.” His tail signifies that he was teaching lies (See Isaiah 9:15), and the stars cast down were chiefly represented by angels (See Rev. 1:20) who believed his lies. “And there was war in heaven...”

WAR OF THE KINGDOMS

One of the most startling realities was that war began in heaven, and is now continuing on earth. But the spirit of the warfare is seldom recognized by those who are not deeply acquainted with Christ, in contrast with the character of Satan. The war in heaven was in this manner: “Michael [which being interpreted means “He is like God”] and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.” (Revelation 12:7-9)

The angels fought on the side of the dragon, who is called Satan and the devil. Both Michael and Satan hold meanings to their names. Michael is the name for Christ, for He is like God. And Satan means adversary, another name characterizing the rebellion of Lucifer in heaven, who aspired to be like God in authority.

WAR ON EARTH

Satan is also called “that old serpent”. Previous to he and his angels being cast out of heaven, Satan had enlisted for his cause the earth, with Adam and Eve falling under his subject. His lie to Eve brought forth the his cherished idea of government: where all are equally gods and therefore, there is no law by which transgression is to be measured out. "Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:1-5)

God's government is based on "the obedience of faith". If Eve had faith, she would have expressed that faith through obedience. But Satan suggested that she might attain to equality with God, that she might enter into a higher sphere than was appointed her by God, and she sinned. Satan suggested that all trees were equally good for food, much as he suggests that every day alike may be a holy Sabbath, despite not a single text of Scripture to authorize such a claim. It is faith in God's word, and obedience by faith that Satan is attacking. Satan would make the claims of the creature as high as the claims of the Creator. And cast down the claims of the Creator by establishing the claims of the creature above Him. Such is the inevitable result of the government of equality Satan was suggesting, against the government of faith. One government is centered upon self while claiming the highest good of others; while the other is centered upon the Creator and affirms His way is the highest good of all; one is selfish ambitious love, and the other is love for God (See John 14:15)

Satan was cast out into the earth that he led into rebellion after he had led man to crucify Christ. Yet Christ, desiring to reconcile those ignorant of the devil's devices, revealed the true mind of God, the character which filled all of heaven, and the principles laid out in the Kingdom of God. He demonstrated that even One who is like God in the sense of equality did not count it a matter to be held onto (See Phil. 2:6), "but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." (Philippians 2:7-8)

It was this character of lowliness that reconciled even those in heaven who were unsettled by the claims of Satan of equality. When they saw the true self-exalted nature of the claims of his government, and that it was willing to put down the life of the Prince of heaven, his own Creator, to exalt self, it's reconciling influence in heaven was felt. "And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven." (Col. 1:20)

It was at this time that the song of triumph was heard in heaven: "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night." (Revelation 12:10)

But this warfare has been continued successfully on earth, and is soon to reach a great prophetic climax. The minds of men are continually at war with the divine government. They seek to make for themselves a name upon the earth. To set their nest up high for peace and safety at the expense of others. Destroying the divinely-ordained pattern of the family.

The opinions and traditions of men, the exaltation of the common in the place of the holy, the blatant disregard of God's word; all of these are manifestations of Satan's suggested experiment of equality: "ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil." Indeed, what an evil has been learned and carried out by humanity from this form of government! What evil has prevailed in every nation of the earth since the fall of Adam and Eve! And what evils have been witnessed in the church by love of position, authority, and this world's goods. But in our next issue, we will examine how this warfare is prophetically being brought to it's logical and startling conclusion upon the earth, and how prophecy foretells it will come to pass. To Be Continued...

CHRISTIAN ISRAEL
SPEAKER/DIRECTOR OF MINISTRY

Loud Cry of the Third Angel is a ministry dedicated to proclaiming the warnings given in Revelation 14:9-15 & 18:1-5, preparing a people to stand in the midst of the coming prophetic storm. The ministry began formally in 2014 when Christian was being called to work in several different lines of ministry. Surrendering his new age beliefs and practices during the Passover season of 2009, he determined to follow Christ wholeheartedly, wherever He should lead him. Preaching his first sermon the same year, his course was mapped out for him. He has spoken in churches throughout North and South America, and is actively doing ministry work in Europe. At his side is his wife Ruxandra, a musician and teacher, and their first child due in September of 2018.

ANNOUNCING

THE STOREHOUSE

BY SHAWN HOFFMAN

In the last days, as the reformation continues, and the way becomes increasingly narrow, the need to follow the pattern of God for supporting the ministries proclaiming the messages that God commanded will become increasingly necessary. To distribute funds accordingly, to support all fields around the world, to organize and pull together, to present a united front to the world, to hold accountability to one another, to train new laborers for the work, to hold evangelistic campmeeting/festivals for outreach. There are many wise reasons for a Storehouse for the ministries. Shawn Hoffman shares a special announcement of a united project we are undertaking and desire your support in.- C. Israel

A number of years ago I was sitting under a tree, praying for various people I knew who had not accepted the reforms that we've been given for these last days. Many of these people seemed to feel no need for reform.

Suddenly a very strange creature fell out of the tree and landed next to me! It was all wrinkled and deformed. It was supposed to be a big beautiful butterfly or moth, but it had not developed properly.

It's body was large and fat and it's wings were tiny and wrinkled. It had never fully formed into the creature it was destined to be!

I watched the poor creature dragging itself across the dirt. Yes, in it's caterpillar stage you would have expected it to crawl in the dirt. But it wasn't supposed to stay there! It was supposed to be reformed into a different creature! It was supposed to be able to fly gracefully up towards the bright heavens!

But because the work of reform had not been done in it's life, it now had no hope of lifting it's wings toward heaven. The time for changing was past and the time to leave the earth had come. But the poor creature was doomed because of it's lack of reform.

I soon saw the large fire ants come running across the ground and start attacking it from all sides! I picked up the deformed creature and set it on a tree branch, but it's body was so large it could hardly pull itself along, let alone crawl on a narrow tree branch. Soon more ants found it and began to attack it. I had to turn sadly away because there was nothing I could do to save it!

“Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.” (Matt 13:51)

All through time God has had a special people in this earth that were to be His representatives. All through time He has continued to call them to a higher and higher standard – to prepare them to leave this earth and become part of the society of Heaven.

Abraham was called out of his homeland to sojourn by faith in a land he did not know. His descendants were called to be God’s chosen people and represent Him in the earth. To them were committed the oracles of God. But they kept the light to themselves and eventually they became so stuck in tradition that when Christ came they did not know Him. So Christ chose a small band of believers to carry the Gospel to the world. And that movement grew into the Christian church.

During the Dark Ages, there were faithful souls in all lands who kept the torch of truth burning brightly. And towards the end of the 1,260 years of papal darkness, the Protestant Reformation carried that torch of truth all across the world. But the children of the reformers again ceased to carry forward the reformation to its completion. And so, around 1844, God raised up the Second Advent Movement to carry on the work of reform! Their attention was directed to the Commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus, which is the Spirit of Prophecy.

They gained much ground and re-discovered many lost gems of truth, which had been buried in the rubbish of error for many centuries! But there was more yet to discover! In 1888 Ellen White said, “There is much light yet to shine forth from the law of God and the gospel of righteousness. This message, understood in its true character, and proclaimed in the Spirit, will lighten the earth with its glory.” (2 Manuscript Releases, p. 58)

And in 1890 she wrote, “The question has been asked me, “Do you think that the Lord has any more light for us as a people?” I answer that He has light that is new to us, and yet it is precious old light that is to shine forth from the Word of truth. We have only the glimmerings of the rays of the light that is yet to come to us. We are not making the most of the light which the Lord has already given us, and thus we fail to receive the increased light; we do not walk in light already shed upon us.

We call ourselves commandment-keeping people, but we do not comprehend the exceeding breadth of the far-reaching principles of the law of God; we do not understand its sacred character. Many who claim to be teachers of the truth, have no real conception of what they are doing in teaching the law of God, because they do not have a living knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.” (1 Selected Messages 401-402)

By 1890, all the major truths held by the Adventist church had already been discovered. But there was much more! They had only the glimmerings of the light that was yet to come. And where would this light come from? The law of God and the gospel of righteousness! But what happened? Over the decades, the Advent movement slowed down, and now the majority are sliding back towards the world. Who will carry on the reformation? Who will discover the many gems of truth that are still waiting?

The signs of the times indicate that the final events of this world history are right upon us! Prophecy is being fulfilled all around us – day by day we are rapidly progressing towards the crisis! The end is right upon us and the reformation is not finished! We are like the moth with crippled and deformed wings. Our time for preparation is almost over. We are supposed to be like the Three Angels, flying through the air, crying with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.", etc.

Someone has to carry on the Reformation! Someone must cry with a loud voice, giving the Three Angel's messages to the world!

It's something we each must do individually. And it's also something that needs to be done on a larger scale by well organized ministries and organizations. Unity and organization are important! Without these we are just independent atoms, not able to accomplish much.

In recent years many people have been impressed by God to enter full time ministry work and form ministry organizations to carry forward the work of the Gospel. And a number of these ministries are now making efforts to unite and work together more directly in order to increase their effectiveness.

But funds are needed to carry forward the work of the Gospel. Our Father in Heaven owns the cattle on a thousand hills, and "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith Jehovah of hosts." (Hag 2:8).

But He has entrusted His gold and silver to human beings. And sometimes it can be difficult for people to know where to send their tithes and offerings where they will be used in the most efficient way to spread the Gospel.

In the Bible times they had a storehouse in the Temple, where the tithes and offerings could be collected and then distributed to those who were doing the ministry work.

So we have seen the need for the same kind of thing today - an efficient method of distributing funds to the various ministries that are working to carry forward the truths for this time; ministries that are standing firm on the old truths which were committed to the Second Advent believers, and at the same time seeking for new gems of truth that have been lost sight of over the centuries.

So a number of ministries have decided to join together to form something called The Storehouse - a central repository where people can send their tithes and offerings, to be distributed to various ministries that are seeking to do the work described above.

This project has now been launched and is ready to receive funds for distribution to the laborers in God's cause!

STOREHOUSE MISSIONS

The desire for the Storehouse came that the various ministries might be more equally supported on the mission field, and that greater efficiency may be promoted in the body of Christ. Here are the Ministries that are presently supported from the Tithes and Offerings that come into the Storehouse. Certain conditions are considered before any ministry is supported. More ministries will be announced via the Facebook Page. Please note that this ministry is not 501c3 incorporated, and as such, donations are not tax deductible.

Creationist Corner

WITH LUCAS LENARTOWICZ

"And God said, Let there be light:... And God saw the light, that it was good:..." (KJV Gen 1.3,4). Imparted on the first day of Creation, light is one of the most amazing parts. There is something special about light, almost supernatural, and it still confounds the best physicists to this day.

LIGHT IN THE BIBLE

In the Bible, light is often used as a sign for righteousness, "if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." "...God is light, and in him is no darkness at all." (Isa. 8:20; 1 John 1:5). In fact, the Bible itself is called a light (Psalm 119:105). Most would admit that light has a pure and refreshing nature to it. And when a closer look is taken at light, it clearly suggests that Someone greater must be behind it.

THE SCIENCE OF LIGHT

Light is pure energy and plays an integral part to our existence on this planet and to our modern world today. The light that we see everyday as we wake from sleep is only a small part of a much greater spectrum. This spectrum is called the electromagnetic spectrum and all the different forms of light in it have the same basic properties as the light which we see. So, from now on I will refer to the light that we see as visible light (What is Light).

Visible light comes in different colors, as most people know. The color of light is based on wavelength. Red visible light has a long wavelength while blue visible light has a short wavelength. Wavelength also denotes the energy of the light. Gamma rays have the shortest wavelength and thus are the highest energy light and the most dangerous. Radio waves have longer wavelengths and are thus lower energy light. Fortunately, God has created a beautiful atmosphere to filter the dangerous wavelengths of light and leave us with the refreshing visible light, and a few other important wavelengths (Plourde).

NASA. File: 23 July 2007. <https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:EM_Spectrum3-new.jpg>.

Visible light provides plants the energy to produce oxygen and grow. It allows us to see God's beautiful creation and it controls our moods to some extent.

And light is used in our everyday technologies. From smartphones to radio sets to microwaves. That might sound strange but as was said above, visible light comprises only a small part of a very large spectrum which includes FM radio waves and X-rays. And yes, when you get an X-ray in the hospital they are actually using the X-ray wavelength of light.

SPEEDING LIGHT

Probably the most common fact about light is that it has the fastest speed known to science in the universe. It travels at 300,000,000 meters per second in a vacuum (over 1 billion kph or 670,616,629mph) which is approximately over 10 million times faster than the average highway speed limit¹ (Redd)! Because of light's incredible speed it provides us with a huge potential for different uses, such as highspeed, wireless internet and fiberoptic cables.

THE DUAL NATURE OF LIGHT

Next up is probably the most confusing aspect of light; so do not worry if you do not understand it. Above, light was referred to as a wave. And that is probably the easiest way to work with it. Truly, light has two forms in what is formally called the Particle/wave duality theory. In common language this means light can sometimes behave as an electromagnetic wave, similar to sound waves and water waves; and sometimes behave as a particle. So, when a beam of light shines through the window it could be composed of a bunch of particles, or as a wave, or both, for all we know (Plourde).

So why does light have to have these two forms. The reason for this is that it is the best explanation scientists have. One interesting property of light that disturbed the scientific community is that light carries very specific amounts of energy. The only way this can be explained is with the particle theory of light. If we could see each particle of light, called a photon, it would be possible to point to one and say that it has "x" amount of energy. With waves this is not possible as waves carry energy differently. Waves, on the other hand, provide explanations for other properties of light, such as the double-slit experiment (Harris and PH.D.) (What is Light).

GLORY TO GOD

As you can see, light is quite an amazing thing, and it clearly testifies to the genius of our Great Creator God. To finish it off, David puts it quite fittingly, "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?" (KJV Psa 8.3,4). It also says in the Bible that we are to be the light of the world, the visible light that is (we are not to fry anyone); "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid." (KJV Mat 5.14) So let us walk as the just whose path "is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day." (KJV Pro 4.18).

VERSE-FOR-MEDITATION

The Scriptures tell us we are to meditate upon the Scriptures continually. Not as the world meditates, emptying their minds of everything; but Biblical meditation is emptying the mind of fleshly thoughts, and filling it with the Word of God (Ps. 119:97). Below is a rendering based on an illustrated teaching from elder Gerritt Lindembloom, who assembles with us from one Sabbath to another in Portugal.

For further meditation on this subject,
See: Deut. 30:19-20, Galatians 2:20
Galatians 5:16-25
